

EMMANUELLE GUERRERO

FRONT END WEB DEVELOPER
CYCLIST AND KNOWLEDGE SHARING ENTHUSIAST

Passionate about web design & development, focusing on functionality and usability, following methodologies with user experience in mind. Targeting a great end-to-end experience making it easy and friendly to interact with an app.

OBJECTIVE

To expand my IT knowledge mainly in software development aside from improving my soft skills and acquire new techniques to perform better as a teammate; keen to participate and contribute in a positive way on projects as well as getting involved with the community built around it.

It's great to keep learning from others in the community as well as sharing any acquired knowledge as a way to empower the community.
